The Need of the Union of the Left for the Socialization of the Economy and the State

Comrades, in this article I will deal with a topic that I have been discussing with Kalil and commenting on Paulo Ghiraldelli Jr's channel for a while, which is the theme of the union of the left for the socialization of the economy (means of production) and the state , which despite being a somewhat "utopian" theme for some, is the only way out of the neoliberalism of right-wings and the state capitalism of nationalists and fascists (third-positionists).

The theme of socialization of the economy and the state are themes that have been discussed by the Trotskyist left and the Ghiraldellian left for some years, putting the economy to be completely managed by workers 'cooperatives and the state being managed directly by councils and workers' unions. be carried out mutually together for the realization of socialism and the liberation of people from neoliberalism and capitalism.

The main issue for the socialization of the economy and the state is the union of the left for the realization of both, however much we see is a right-wing left in most sectors of the left, we must fight to fight the right-wing of the left, and freeing the lefts from right and neoliberalism completely, even if it is necessary to re-educate the lefts and turning the lefts into thinkers and reflectors, mainly through videos and articles.

With the left becoming a thinker and a reflexive, it will be possible, thus, to unite the left with the plan of socialization of the economy and the means of production, starting with Brazil, and mobilizing other lefts around the world, mainly in central countries, such as the USA, Japan, countries in Europe, in addition to the countries of Latin America, and also, if possible, in China itself, which finds itself in state capitalism that has nothing to do with socialism, nor even communism.

This plan of socialization of the economy and the state at the international level, will be a great step towards the realization of the permanent revolution, and consequently of the Troskism, thus carrying out the permanent revolution in a peaceful and gradual manner, thus, ending neoliberalism in a peaceful manner. and gradual, thus leading to the creation of a socialist world with the fully socialized world economy, with fully socialized world politics and with workers and people being free from capitalism, neoliberalism and any other form of exploitation generated by capitalism or by neoliberalism.
